The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where Nordea Bank Abp is not able to pay you. You will either be unable to end early or you will have to pay high costs or make a large loss if you do so. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 3 months

This product is designed for staying invested until the maturity date.

The FX Risk Reversal is a bilateral agreement that cannot ordinarily be terminated unilaterally by either you or Nordea. It is a product that is entered into for its term, although early termination may occur in the event of a default of either you or Nordea. The agreement between you and Nordea provides that if certain exceptional events occur (1) Nordea may make adjustments to certain terms and/or (2) Nordea or you may terminate the product early. These events are specified in more detail in the agreement between you and Nordea. The product may also be terminated upon mutual agreement. The amount of an early termination payment (if any) you receive or pay on such early termination is likely to be different from the scenarios described in this document.

The early termination payment will be determined by the market value of the product at the time of termination. The early termination payment is not a penalty charge. The amount represents the economic value of what Nordea would expect to have paid or received if the product continued as agreed. Depending on market conditions at the time of the early termination, the early termination payment could result in a substantial loss for you.

You may not be able to terminate this product even though you or Nordea have terminated or discontinued a product or a commercial flow that this product is aimed to hedge.
